From MONDAY December 10th, to MONDAY December 17th

KINGSTON in JAMAICA, October 22.

To his Excellency Edward Trelawny, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, and the Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

The Humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Aſſembly of this his Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, return your excellency our thanks for your ſpeech at the opening this Seſſion.

WE are truly ſenſible of the great diſtreſs the Iſland now labours under, occaſioned by the want of currency, and we ſhall endeavour, as far as lies in our power, to make uſe of the moſt effectual methods for remedying an evil which is like to prove of ſuch dangerous Conſequence to the credit of the Iſland in general.

WE ſhall take care to raiſe ſuch ſupplies as will be conſiſtent with the preſent neceſſitous circumſtances of the Iſland, for ſupporting and compleating the Fortifications.

THE publick and private Benefits ariſing from good and convenient roads of communication through the country, will induce us to make an immediate enquiry into the application of the monies that have been granted for that purpoſe, and ſhall make ſuch further proviſions as may be neceſſary for the opening of new ones.

WE ſhall endeavour to conduct all our debates with that temper and ſpirit becoming a legiſlature, which has nothing at heart but the good of our country, and we are very well aſſured by experience, of your excellency's ready concurrence in any meaſures which may tend to the ſervice of his Majeſty, and the welfare of this Iſland.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I Thank you for this Addreſs, and the aſſurances you give me of providing for the ſervices I recommended to you.

Boſton, October 22. By a veſſel from Halliſax we have advice, that about a fortnight ago, Capt. Rous in his majeſty's ſloop Albany, met with a Brig. and a ſchooner in the bay of Fundy, the firſt of which he hail'd, to know who ſhe was, and whither bound, but not having a ſatisfactory anſwer, he fired a gun, upon which Monſieur hoiſted French colours, but returned no anſwer: Then Capt. Rous fired a ſhot acroſs her fore foot, which the Brig. return'd with a broad-ſide, by which a Midſhipman of Capt. Rous's was kill'd, and another man wounded. Upon this a ſmart engagement enſued, which continued about three hours, when the Frenchman ſurrendered. Capt. Rous had 2 men kill'd, and the French 6, and ſeveral were wounded on both ſides. During the engagement the French ſchooner ſtood out to ſea, and eſcaped: They both came from Canada, and were bound to St. John's with proviſions and warlike ſtores for a new French ſettlement there. The Brig. was a veſſel of war, and ſerv'd as a convoy to the ſchooner. 'Tis ſaid the Brig. had commiſſions on board for ſome of the French neutrals, as they are commonly (tho' improperly) called. Capt. Rous ar lifax a few hours before the veſſel ſailed by which we intelligence.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman, dated at Chineſto, O

——'WE have the moſt treacherous enemy in the w deal with:——Since our being here we h great many conferences by flags of truce, with both t and Indians: Capt. How was the perſon who always we underſtood their language beſt, and ſometimes he conv them above an hour; and there generally went with h twenty officers near the place where they held their conferenc But this day, even within this fatal hour, he went to anſw flag with only the drum who carries our flag, and had hal converſation with a French officer; during which tim were full of either French or Indians under cover; a Capt. How had finiſhed his converſation with the ra man, and turn'd his back to go to the fort, the villa hind the dykes roſe up and fired a whole volley at hi drum; one ball prov'd fatal to him, which I believe went heart.—As ſoon as we ſaw the fire of the enemy, we ſent down to the marſh to bring him off; but tho' they effect 'twas too late to bring him alive: The drum was not hu The villains as ſoon as they ſaw our men approach, alth were on the other ſide of a river which we could not get ove were entrench'd up to the chin, yet they run like ſo many and now and then fired a piece.——What behaviour is this? even flags of truce (which have ever been ſacred) ſhould be cut in the midſt of a parley, but the baſe treachery of worſe t ſavage brutes!—— But poor Capt. How was a perſon they h always been afraid of; and whom they all knew very well, and tha he was a moſt ſerviceable perſon among us, and had almoſt the whol management of things in his own hands; and his death they have been trying to accompliſh theſe ſeveral days, which he has had information of, but was too confident of the honour of Monſ. Le Carne, by which poor man he loſt his life.'

Boſton, Nov. 5. Yeſterday arrived here from Chineſto in Nova-Scotia, the ſnow Fair Lady, and by her we hear, that the Indians have taken an Engliſh ſchooner, loaded with ſalt, made the men priſoners, and burnt the veſſel.

Boſton, Nov. 12. Our lateſt advices from Chineſto in Nova-Scotia, are, that our forces there had almoſt finiſhed their fort and two block-houſes, and that they were in high ſpirits, and had got proviſion for 8 months.

We alſo hear, that Capt. Cobb, in the ſloop York, being up at Cheparta, near Chineſto, and diſcovering a ſchooner a-ground, he ſent his boat armed to take poſſeſſion of her, and upon their approach the Frenchmen left her and got aſhore, and Capt. Cobb's people took poſſeſſion of her; but not being able to get her off, and a number of the enemy coming down to the ſhore, they were obliged to quit her, taking only ſome proviſions and her ſails with them. As ſoon as the men returned to the ſloop, Capt. Cobb fired into the ſchooner, until the tide roſe ſo as to cover her, and then came away. This was the ſchooner that was under convoy of the brig. lately taken by Capt. Rous: Her lading was chiefly flour in bulk.

We hear, that it is very ſickly at Halifax, eſpecially among the Germans, and that many have died of fevers and fluxes.

A Spaniſh gentleman belonging to a large and rich ſhip of his nation, that was lately caſt away on the coaſt of Carolina, is juſt arrived in town, to endeavour to find out and recover the money and other effects ſaved out of the wreck, and ſhipp'd on board a ſloop whereof one Zebulon Wade of Scituate was maſter, who agreed
